

Unitarian Universalist Principles and Purposes

We affirm and promote...

...The inherent worth and dignity of every person;

...Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations;

...Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregation;

...A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;

...The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregation and in society at large;

...The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;

...Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

To sustain a vital and nurturing religious community

What does being a member of Albany UU mean?

Membership means...

...Joining a community that shares principles, purposes, and tradition. The living tradition we share draws on many sources:

- Direct experience of the transcending mystery, affirmed in all cultures, that renews the spirit.
- Words and deeds of prophetic people, challenging us to confront evil with justice, compassion, and love.
- Wisdom from the world's religions, inspiring our ethical and spiritual life.
- Jewish and Christian teachings calling us to love our neighbors as ourselves.
- Humanist teachings which counsel us to heed science and reason, and warn against idolatries of mind and spirit.
- Spiritual teachings of Earth-centered traditions, celebrating the circle of life and teaching harmony with nature.

You can learn more about our principles and traditions by talking with our minister, Rev. Sam Trumbore; attending a Newcomer/New Members Class; reading literature from our library; subscribing to UU World, the Unitarian Universalist magazine.

Membership offers...

...Support and fellowship in the form of many activities and services, such as:

- Sunday morning services and discussion forums
- Involvement in social activism
- Choir and other musical activities
- Book groups
- Men's support groups
- Parents' Potluck
- Projects and Quilts (Ps & Qs)
